Trade Stands – Catering Outlets will be monitored by Safety & Environmental Officers.

Catering Outlet Legal Conditions:

You will need to have a current Food Hygiene Certificate to cook and sell food to the public. This is a document which shows you have passed a test on Food and Hygiene practices. You are then issued with a certificate and by law you must display this on your catering trailer.

You will also need an LPG Test Certificate (gas) and an Electrical Certificate to legally trade from your catering trailer (ensures appliances are safe on vehicle). Again this proves you have conformed to Health & Safety practices. You should also be registered with the local Council who will visit you and inspect your vehicle to ensure you comply with the Food Hygiene regulations.

General Conditions: Enquiries should be made to Selma McMullan (telephone number 077 5267 8454). A 50% deposit together with your application (non-refundable) will secure your pitch (balance to be paid by 6th July 2019). AMRRC have the right to refuse your application.

- All traders must have valid public liability insurance.
- All traders should carry out a risk assessment for general Health & Safety
- NO selling of additional products/services other than those stated above
- NO swapping of pitches
- No sub-letting/sharing of pitches
- Your pitch area is to be kept safe/clean/tidy (bins will be provided if required)
- NO physical or verbal abuse will be tolerated to the public or officials
- Non-compliance with pitch conditions will result in your expulsion from the event.
